74

Slawa Prischedko

“Everything depends on the lighting: it lends psychology to the character and emotion to the scene.”

FEATURED ARTISTS

24 ELENA BOZANOVA

Still Lives

This Russian artist's favourite subject matter is flowers. Under the gentle and poetic appearance of her paintings lies a rigorous drawing.

34 CAROL EVANS

Landscapes

The Canadian artist explains to us how her technique has developed and become the reflection of her passion for the wilderness.

40 JOSÉ APAZA

Portraits

Whether in a multitude of subtle shades or in monochrome, this Peruvian artist portrays his favourite subject: the human being.

56 HUANG TIE SHAN

Landscapes

“In Hunan province, there is a lot of moisture in the air, it is therefore very easy to paint in watercolour. It also explains the more muted grey palette.”

62 CHINMAYA PANDA

Portraits

Wisdom is not all about age, as the paintings of this young Indian artist show. From his relationship with his models, to the way he sees his art evolving, he shares with us his views on painting...

68 RICHARD STEPHENS

Urban Scenes

With his loose brushwork, this American artist shows how a successful painting is mainly down to trusting in one's abilities.

74 SLAWA PRISCHEDKO

Figures

This meticulous and organised artist invites us to contemplate his gallery of sensual and mysterious female figures.

84 JOËLLE KRUPA-ASTRUC

Flowers

Technique isn't everything in watercolour: expressing your feelings is an integral part of the process.
